ABOUT CAMP DALEVILLE

JCC Camp Daleville is located 15 minutes from Scranton in rural Daleville, Pennsylvania and is operated by the JCC of Scranton. For more than 50 years, our beautiful 100-acre site has been the perfect setting for children to learn new skills, build relationships and make lasting memories. We offer programs for campers from preschool age through eighth grade and an exciting Counselor in Training (CIT) program.

Campers are grouped by age/grade and enjoy a wide variety of age appropriate programs, field trips and special days. Campers will discover new activities, improve skills, and build confidence and self esteem in an outstanding environment with great facilities that include: a heated in-ground swimming pool, a 20-acre lake, basketball & volleyball courts, ball fields, tetherball courts, playgrounds, an archery range, a mini-golf area, hiking trails, an auditorium with stage, picnic pavilion, arts and crafts center and more! Our boys and girls locker rooms provide clean changing areas and ample storage for bags and belongings during activities.

CAMP DALEVILLE PHILOSOPHY

JCC Camp Daleville is a community where children come first! Our number one priority is ensuring that your camper has a fun, safe, positive, memorable experience. We encourage campers to learn inter-personal skills, achieve personal growth and gain a sense of independence. JCC Camp Daleville enriches campers' lives by instilling positive values and building life skills in a fun, nurturing environment, while creating lasting friendships and memories!

It is our policy to provide services to the entire community on a non-sectarian basis, while still offering an environment our Jewish children can relate to and identify with. Our experienced and caring staff is highly trained and motivated to provide the most positive, impactful summer camp experience for your child. Even though we operate within a group context, we are always conscious of the individual needs of our campers.

Safe, supervised transportation to/from camp from designated locations in Clark Summit and Scranton is included in the JCC Camp Daleville tuition.

We have a strong network of alumni, many of whom are now parents sending their children to our camp. JCC Camp Daleville is the place to be this summer. Enroll your child today and experience the magic of a great summer at JCC Camp Daleville!
